DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- Species I directed to an image recording device comprising a controller which controls the curing section to cure the first ink on the recording medium, and controls the second recording head to start discharging the second ink after a conversion of the first ink on the recording medium becomes not less than 30% (as applied to claim 1 in its present form)
- Species II directed to an image recording device comprising a second recording head which discharges a second ink for a background recording to a second surface of the recording medium, the second surface is opposite side of the first surface; and a second curing section which cures the second ink on the second surface of the recording medium (as applied to claim 14 in its present form)

The species are independent or distinct because inventions I and II are directed to related products. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, Species I and II are mutually exclusive. Species I deals with curing control and seems to be directed to an embodiment where the all the recording heads are on the same side of the recording medium, such as in figure 1. Conversely, species II seems to be directed to an embodiment where there is a head directed to printing on a second surface, which is opposite the first surface, such as in figure 10.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leonard S. Liang whose telephone number is (571) 272-2148. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5 Monday-Friday.
